

Hopkinton Organizing for Prevention

A community-wide collaboration in preventing substance use and abuse.

BE HERE TOMORROW: A Special Evening with Kevin Hines: Wednesday, May 29, 2024, 6:30 pm-8:30 pm, Cross Insurance Pavillion, Gillette Stadium, Foxborough, MA

A message of Hope, Healing & Resiliency Sponsored by Hockomock Area YMCA, Healthy KP, and the SAFE Coalition in celebration of Mental Health Awareness Month. Cross Insurance Pavilion,

In 2000, Kevin Hines attempted his death by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge at age 19. He survived the fall and ever since he's dedicated his life to advocating for those with mental pain and talking about mental health. Kevin lives with a strict motto... Life is the single greatest gift we've been given. Cherish it always. #BeHereTomorrow. REGISTRATION REQUIRED - Free to the public.

Hopkinton Organizing for Prevention does not want you to miss this event and is providing a bus to make this program accessible to all. You MUST register for this program here, prior to registering for the bus.

Hopkinton Organizing for Prevention is providing a bus ride to and from this special event!
To attend, please

1. Register for the program <https://givebutter.com/Mental-Health-Awareness-2024>
2. Register for the bus <https://forms.gle/P7V1bhJihGjCzLQk9>

The bus will leave Hopkinton Town Hall (located at 18 Main St., Hopkinton, MA 01748) promptly at 4:00 pm and travel to Gillette Stadium. High school age youth may ride the bus without a Parent/caregiver. If you choose to park and ride the bus as a family, please park at St. John's church and walk down to the bus as only local business parking is allowed behind the town hall.

Attendees will have the option to purchase dinner or refreshments on their own at the shops at Gillette Stadium from 4:30-6pm. If traveling alone, please provide your HS student with funds to purchase dinner.

At 6:00, attendees will attend the program. The program ends at 8:30 pm. The bus will return to Hopkinton Town Hall by 9pm. Please have your HS student's ride waiting at town hall.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to Cassandra Bigness and Dawn Alcott at cbigness@hopkintonma.gov OR dalcott@hopkintonma.gov.